“This book serves as a guide for faith, love, family, community and the diligent works required to cause miracles. It serves as a catalyst for me to want to ‘Pay It Forward.’”

— John McNeil
CEO, The Pacific Institute Community

Dora Barilla had the perfect life: a great job, a handsome firefighter husband, two beautiful daughters, and a house in the suburbs. But on March 15, 2005, her world was turned upside down. While on a routine call, husband Tom Barilla suffered a traumatic brain injury in a horrific collision that nearly killed him, destroying Dora’s perfect world. With refreshing honesty Dora recounts her struggle to maintain optimism for her family and friends as well as keep her own sanity during these trials. Ultimately, with faith and understanding, Dora is able to accept the challenges of her new world, and embrace a New Day.
